Washington, June 28.—Agent Rodgers, in Mexico City, advised the state department that a reply was expected from Carranza today. It is believed that Carranza's delay is caused by his waiting on mediation. Up to 4 o'clock no reply had been received.

Laredo, Texas, June 28.—Americans arriving from Monterey today report that a special train left Monterey, yesterday, completely filled with Japanese soldiers under command of a Japanese officer and a few Carranza officers. The troops went to Chihuahua to reinforce General Trevino.

NO CHANGE OF ATTITUDE ON MEXICAN SITUATION.
(By Associated Press.)

Washington, June 28.—A note protesting against outrages against Mexicans, alleged to have been committed by an American force, three thousand strong, in its march from San Geronimo toward El Paso, was sent to the state department today by Ambassador Arredondo, on instructions from the Carranza foreign office.

Viscous complaint against the alleged arrest and mistreatment of three hundred civilians at Laredo, is registered, with the request that the officers responsible be punished and steps taken to prevent a recurrence. There was nothing today to indicate the administration's position has undergone any change. Officials still expected the president to go before congress tomorrow, if Carranza failed to act or replied unfavorably.

Anything short of immediate release of American troops will be unsatisfactory. No proposal for negotiations will be acceptable.

HOW TROOPS WILL BE DISTRIBUTED.

Chicago, June 28.—Kansas troops will go to Eagle Pass, Texas; the Missouri troops to Laredo, Texas; Illinois and Wisconsin, to San Antonio, except the Illinois cavalry, which will go to Brownsville, Texas.

MEX. CAVALRY CONSOLIDATING TO CUT PERSHING'S LINE.

Columbus, N. M., June 28.—Army officers have investigated the report that the murderers of Will Parker and wife, near Hachita, yesterday, were caught this side of the border and killed.

The message here said that the bandits, six in all, were wound out. While the employees of the Diamond A Ranch were helping hunt the slayers, the ranch was raided and many horses taken.

A large force of Carranza cavalry is being consolidated just east of Pershing's line of communication.

ORPET TELLS OWN STORY OF GIRL'S DEATH

Washington, Ill., June 28.—William R. Orpet, who elected to tell his own story on the stand in relation to the charge of murdering Marian Laubert, completed a session of cross-examination today which left him more pale and nervous than his grilling yesterday.

The course of questioning adopted by David H. Joslyn for the state, surrounded in pitfalls and led the witness over a route which twisted and turned and doated on itself with an impudence which more than once caused the witness to erupt in testimony.

Former Guthrie at Front.

Lieutenant Surgeon Hugh Scott, who used to be private secretary to Congressman McGuire, is now with the United States forces in Mexico and is seeing real war. Writing home from a point 250 miles south of the border he says that Uncle Sam has enough men there, if they had plenty of ammunition, to lick the entire Mexican army.

COUNTY ROADS WILL

County Commissioners are arranging to give the people of Logan the best system of good roads obtainable with the money available. Said one today: "Last year we were curtailed by lack of funds, but with that handicap the roads of Logan county are in better condition than ever before. The coming fiscal year will see great improvement in the highways. The 'crack' levy will make it possible for the township officers to put the cross roads in good shape and we will endeavor to care for the big ones."

The heavy rain at this spring have been disastrous to the roads and bridges.

(By Associated Press.)

Muskogee, June 28.—Mrs. Hadley pleaded guilty to attempted jail break. She was sentenced to ten years.

Muskogee, June 28.—Mrs. Ida Hadley, confessed slayer of Sheriff Howdy Giles of Westmont, Texas, was acquitted Tuesday night of the charge of the officers' murder. She was found not guilty by a jury in the district court here on the ground that she is insane.

Her husband, Paul Hadley, who was with her when Giles was killed, was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary. Mrs. Hadley raved like a mad woman when the verdict was read. Shrieking and screaming, she threw herself upon her husband and fought the officers when they strived to tear her from him. Four officers carried her to a police patrol and she was taken back to her cell.

Her husband received the verdict calmly. "I am not guilty. I know nothing of a plot to kill Giles, yet I am satisfied," he said. "Had they taken me back to Texas they would have killed me anyway. I am glad they gave me life and I am glad they acquitted Ida."

Here are five of the officers of the Tenth cavalry, several companies of which were attacked by Carranza soldiers at Carrizal, Mexico, Wednesday, June 21.

LATEST OUTRAGE ADDS TO INTENSE FEELING OF BORDER RESIDENTS

El Paso, June 28.—The report this morning that another family had been murdered by Mexican bandits on the American side, caused great excitement here and elsewhere along the border. Yesterday news arrived of the murder of William Parker, an American ranchman and his wife, following them on their cattle trail.

The news today of the murder of the family, with three children and two blood relatives and the burning of the Parker ranch near Santa Fe, Tex., and the hostile attitude recently manifested toward Americans by the Mexican bandits, has added to the feeling of the border residents.

The general sentiment seemed to be that the incident demonstrated once the inability of the Carranza government to offer any protection to the American frontier and that it would serve to bring matters to a head quickly.

A Punitive Chase.

Military authorities here doubted that the bandits, who are believed to have been members of a band of stock thieves, would be overtaken before they crossed into Mexico, but they said that the ranch in but few miles from the line. Officers of the American border patrol had been unable to begin whether any of the military detachments ordered to a hunt have crossed the border because of the location of the district. Conviction was expressed, however, that if the troops discovered the bandits' trail they have followed them into Mexican territory.

Headquarters of the British Army in France, June 28.—These young Canadians in khaki playing baseball in a Belgian pasture could tell you what the shell fire at Verdun was like. They had been under it—the worst that has been known on the British front. Around them was the uttermost of the country side; in the distance the guns were still growling around Barret Hill, Sanctuary Wood and Hinge, the scene of the Canadian's greatest battle in France.

Most of them, bloodstained, they had come away from the bloody piles of dirt which had been their trenches and after a long sleep they had wakened to find they were alive and started to play baseball to pass the time till they should go into the trenches again. They had been in the thick of it from 8:30 A. M. till 1:30 P. M. on June 2nd, 1916, in the apex of the Ypres salient, that bend in the line which had stuck out as an invitation to the Germans as the Ypres salient for more than a year.

The Germans could arrange their guns in a fan shape around it as they could at Verdun; and they did. When their guns began to speak the British guns spoke back; and even the old inhabitants of the Ypres salient agreed that it was the worst ever. Nobody on the spot ever supposed that there were so many guns in either the German or the British army.

But the officer inside the farmhouse sitting at the farmer's dining room table could tell all about it—his small part of it. He and his men had been in and out of the trenches on their shifts till they were quite used to the monotony of the trench life and the daily warfare. The morning of June 2nd was very quiet. A general who was taken prisoner afterward, was making an inspection. An occasional crack of a bullet over head and an occasional shot in answer. As to the infantry men, without any more warning than a "Halt" command. They at once ran, clutching at trench, or German.

What We Know.

"Two bullet holes" that now 59 men, strong shells, "whizzbangs," gas, machine guns and "silent" flares, as well as gas shells of high velocity which is not heard coming and it is terrible.

"At least what we were in for," said the officer.
